Australian Alternative Varieties Wine Show

Berton Vineyards Golden Alternatives

The biggest wine show for Vinodiversity lovers - The Australian Alternative Varieties Wine Show (AAVWS), is held in Mildura each November and this year featured over 800 wines from 233 exhibitors, pouring 101 different varieties from 66 unique wine regions around Australia. The AAVWS is more than just a wine show, it's a dedicated forum for alternative or emerging wine varieties – the not so common or widely available. It is highly regarded in the Australian Wine Industry for its commitment to exploring the growing, making, marketing and drinking of these exciting new wines.
