Decanter® May 2017

95 Points World's Best Value Red
Rhone Varietal

The 2017 competition attracted more than 17,200 entries, with more than 1000 Australian wines entered and a panel of 219 expert judges, including 65 Masters of Wine and 20 Master Sommeliers, in a blind tasting. Gold medal winning wines compete against each other for a Platinum medal, with these wines then progressing to a special tasting against their peers to decide the Platinum Best in Show Trophies.

This is a thrilling win with the Shiraz class quoted by Australia's Huon Hooke (The Real Review May 8) as being the "scene stealer."

The 2015 Berton Vineyards Reserve Barossa Shiraz was described as "bursting with quality... the fragrant bouquet of creamy Christmas cake leads into a multifaceted palate of black fruit, prune, spice and a savoury godspeed with affably dry, chalky notes."

Due for release in August*
