Berton Vineyards secures Best Sweet Wine at the Prestigious 2023 National Wine Show in Canberra, Australia

[Canberra, 16th June 2023] - Berton Vineyards has triumphed at the highly acclaimed 2023 National Wine Show in Canberra, Australia.

The winery was awarded a prestigious trophy for the Best Sweet Wine in show for its Reserve 2019 Botrytis Semillon, solidifying its position as a force to be reckoned with in the industry.

The National Wine Show of Australia, considered the pinnacle of wine shows in the country, attracted the crème de la crème of winemakers, industry experts, and wine enthusiasts. This grand event, known for its rigorous judging process and emphasis on excellence, showcased the finest wines Australia has to offer. All wines entered in the show must receive prior medals at specific qualifying wine shows around Australia.

Berton Vineyards, known for its unwavering dedication to quality and innovation, stood out among fierce competition. The esteemed judging panel, comprised of highly respected experts renowned for their discerning palates, recognised the exceptional character, complexity, and balance of the Botrytis Semillon.

The Reserve 2019 Botrytis Semillon, a masterful creation by Berton Vineyards, is a testament to the winery's commitment to crafting wines that epitomise the richness and beauty of their terroir. This exquisite varietal showcases the perfect fusion of flavours, with the delicate sweetness of botrytis-infected Semillon grapes balanced harmoniously with nuanced notes of honey, citrus, and stone fruits.

To top it off, the winery was also awarded a Bronze for the Reserve 2020 Barossa Shiraz at the National Wine Show. This prestigious award signifies a milestone achievement for the winery and further solidifies its position as a leader in the Australian wine industry. Berton Vineyards continues to push the boundaries of winemaking, embracing innovation while remaining true to their heritage. As they celebrate this prestigious achievement, they invite wine lovers to join them in raising a glass to the artistry and passion that fills every bottle of Berton Vineyards' Reserve 2019 Botrytis Semillon.
